To Whom It May Concern,

I would enthusiastically and without hesitation recommend Kyle Rohner of KR Capital and his services. Kyle was able to quickly put us in touch with several qualified buyers soon after listing with him and as a result we were able to close on the sale of our 8 routes within a few months. He was in constant contact throughout the process and was very diligent about returning calls or gathering information that we needed. Kyles experience with the Fed Ex business and with independent contractors and ISP's is impressive and we believe a key asset in using his services.

I would not hesitate to use Kyle again in the future and would encourage anyone trying to buy or sell routes to use his services.

Regards,
